

STEM Leader Forum

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

Join district leaders from across the region to explore how to fuel a cultural shift around STEM teaching and learning.

Tuesday

MARCH 10

8:30 AM - 12:00 PM

University of Kentucky

E.S. GOOD BARN BUILDING

1451 University Dr, Lexington, KY

This thought-leadership event, hosted by Discovery Education and The University of Kentucky, will focus on how to create a shared STEM vision, provide professional development to educators and administrators, and cultivate inquiry-based, transdisciplinary instruction to prepare students for their future.
